

What is the Cost of Attendance (COA)?

Cost of attendance (COA) is a college's total estimated expenses for one year including, tuition, housing and food, books, course materials, supplies & equipment, transportation, personal expenses, and loan fees. A school's cost of attendance is used to determine each student's eligibility for financial aid, such as grants and loans.

Northwood University's Cost of Attendance for 2026/2027 - DeVos Graduate School

Component	Master of Business-12 month	Master of Business-Online or 24 month	Master of Science	Doctor of Business
Tuition (based on full-time)*	$39,702	$19,851	$14,301	$23,301
Books, Course Materials & Supplies	$2,643	$2,643	$2,643	$2,643
Housing and Food	$16,887	$16,887	$16,887	$16,887
Transportation Expenses	$2,901	$2,901	$2,901	$2,901
Personal Expenses	$3,795	$3,795	$3,795	$3,795
Average Loan Fees	$351	$351	$351	$351
Total	$66,279	$46,428	$40,878	$49,878

* Indicates these expenses are directly charged to your student account at Northwood University

**Books, Course Materials and Supplies are partially charged based courses you are registered for.

***Tuition will be different based on the number of credits you are registered for