

What is the Cost of Attendance (COA)?

Cost of attendance (COA) is a college's total estimated expenses for one year including, tuition, housing and food, books, course materials, supplies & equipment, transportation, personal expenses, and loan fees. A school's cost of attendance is used to determine each student's eligibility for financial aid, such as grants and loans.

Northwood University's Cost of Attendance for 2024/2025 - MICHIGAN TRADITIONAL STUDENTS

(yearly total based on full-time coursework)

Component	On Campus	With Parents	In an Apartment/House
Tuition & Fees (based on full-time)*	$34,400	$34,400	$34,400
Books, Course Materials & Supplies	$810	$810	$810
Housing and Food	$13,100	$7,706	$12,000
Transportation Expenses	$1,188	$2,064	$2,064
Personal Expenses	$2,022	$2,682	$2,682
Average Loan Fees	$192	$192	$192
Total	$51,712	$47,854	$52,148

* Indicates these expenses are directly charged to your student account at Northwood University

Books, Course Materials and Supplies are partially charged based courses you are registered for.

Tuition will be different based on the number of credits you are registered for